“Changes in the Mating Strategies of White People.” One coffee shop. Two couples. A million chances to settle the score.

Some dates never end... “Changes in the Mating Strategies of White People” is a comedy that explores urban dating, technology, love and sex in contemporary Los Angeles. A man and a woman meet for the first time on an Internet date while nearby another man and woman meet to end their marriage. One coffee shop.

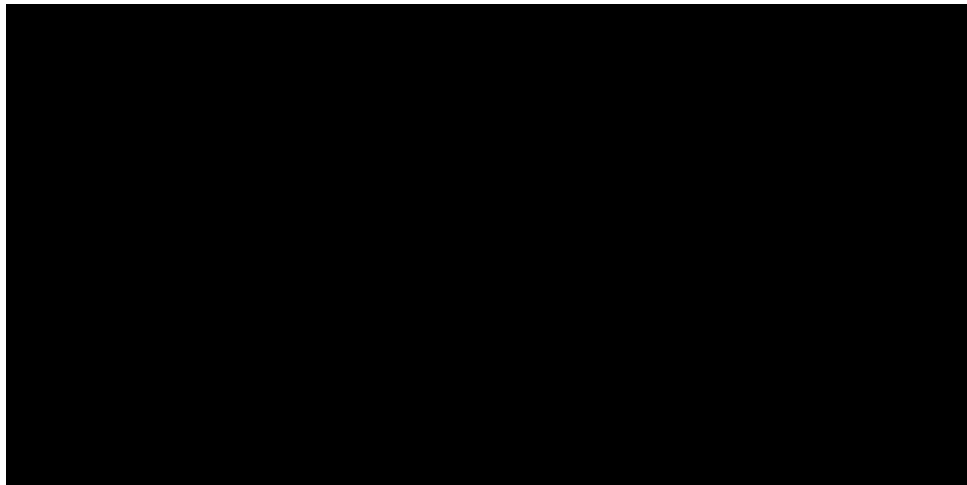

A play by Solange Castro

Directed by Craig Anton

Cast: Abigail Marlowe, William Nicol, Kim Estes, Gloria Charles, Brian Cousins, and Sarah Underwood Saviano
